AS&M SELECTED SBA NATIONAL PRIME CONTRACTOR OF THE YEAR

Analytical Services & Materials, Inc. (AS&M) won the National Prime Contractor of the Year award for 2006 at the Small Business Administration (SBA) Week held in Washington DC, in April 2006. Dr. Jalaiah Unnam, President, AS&M, received the Award from SBA Administrator Mr. Hector V Barreto.

The award recognizes AS&M's performance as a small business prime contractor for providing the government and industry with outstanding services. The award acknowledges the AS&M employees and is a testament to their outstanding performance.

In March 2006, AS&M was selected as the SBA Region III (the most competitive SBA Region, which is made up of Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Washington DC and West Virginia) Prime Contractor of the year.

AS&M was nominated by NASA Dryden for its superior support in the field of aeronautical engineering.
